Plaintiff's complaint concerns issues that Congress has found to be important in an area where damages are often not substantial. The Court and the parties are required to "secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination" of this case. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 1.

The Court ORDERS Plaintiff, individually or through counsel, to attend a hearing prepared to review how the Court and the parties can meet this requirement in this case. The Court further ORDERS Plaintiff to be sure that all parties who have been served or have appeared receive this order.

If Defendants have been served or have appeared before the date of this hearing, the hearing will be an expedited scheduling conference under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 16(b) and 26(f), and the Court ORDERS all parties to attend.
